Child Trust Fund Terms and Conditions

- A Child Trust Fund is a scheme of investment managed in accordance with the CTF regulations by the provider under terms agreed between the provider and the registered contact. The CTF must be in the name of the child
- The Child trust Fund investments shall be in the beneficial ownership of the child.
- The provider will satisfy himself that any person to whom he delegates any of his functions or responsibilities under the terms agreed with the registered contact is competent to carry out those functions and responsibilities.
- On the instructions of the registered contact and within the time stipulated by them the CTF with all rights and obligations shall be transferred free of charge (except charges such as stamp duty and other dealing costs associated with disposal or acquisition of investments) to another provider.
- Where an account is transferred to the provider it will be accepted free of charge (except charges such as stamp duty and other dealing costs associated with disposal or acquisition of investments)
- The provider must notify the registered contact if, by any reason of any failure to satisfy the provisions of the CTF regulations, a CTF has, or will become void
